

Prayer Diary

Summer 2025

For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened. Luke 11:10

Praying for CViE, education and young people is the most impactful way you can support our work – thank you for your prayers.

MONDAY

Pray for God to work out His sovereign purposes in the lives of those involved in education

- Pray for God to give teachers energy, wisdom and patience as they guide pupils through this busy school term.
- Pray for God to equip His people involved in education.
- Pray that schools will be influenced by Christian values, and that God will guide headteachers, senior management team members and governors to make decisions that honour Him and benefit pupils.
- Pray for children and young people in your families and churches – that the Lord would keep them safe from evil influences, and bring them to a saving knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ while young.

TUESDAY

Pray for Christian families – children, parents, staff, governors - in education

- Pray that families will be supported to communicate with schools about any materials being taught with which they do not agree, and protected when choosing not to allow their children to be taught such material.
- Pray for Christian staff hoping to share their faith with colleagues.
- Pray that God will help parents, families and church congregations to have the time and skills to interact with the young people in their care. Thank God for his tenderness and care towards us.

WEDNESDAY

Pray for education leaders in schools, councils and government

- Pray for education leaders and others in positions of influence throughout the world of education – both those that you know personally, and those on the national scene.
- Give thanks for school staff and volunteers, including those known to you personally.
- Give thanks for those who uphold Christian values and for those who listen to the concerns of Christian communities.
- Pray for those not involved in state education e.g. Christian schools, home educators.

THURSDAY

Pray for resources and events

- Pray that CViE website and resources will prove a help to Christians in education.
- Pray for chaplains, church leaders and others who will be visiting local schools sharing the Christian faith with both pupils and staff.
- Pray for the CViE National Conference on September 27th.

FRIDAY

Pray for an equipping of the Church to stand fast on the Word of God in education

- Pray for Christian Values in Education and its Trustees and staff.
- Pray for His favour on all Christian organisations involved in advising, writing or delivering resources for education and young people, such as Lovewise, Family Education Trust, Christian Institute, Christian Concern.
- Pray that families and local fellowships will be active in promoting materials with a Biblical worldview.

Continue to give thanks for the provision of financial resources and thank you for praying with Christian Values in Education.
